U.S. Aircraft Carrier Lexington Lost In Battle Of Coral Sea

Forget Pearl Harbor? NO!! Yankees Sink 9 Jap Ships

By WALTER B. CLAUSEN

PEARL HARBOR, T. H., June 12 (AP)—American fliers, many yelling "Remember Pearl Harbor" as they pushed their bombers into screaming dives, sank nine and possibly 11 Japanese warships and transports at Tulagi harbor, Solomon islands, May 4, as a prelude to the battle of the Coral sea.

Participants in the battle said here today they were certain that two heavy cruisers, three light cruisers, two destroyers and two large transports were sunk. A seaplane tender and a third transport also possibly were sunk as well as numerous small boats.

Not Even a Scratch

Aircraft carrier squadrons delivered the furious assault and all returned without a scratch to their personnel.

Devastating as the blow was to the enemy, it was but a sample of what was to come, for one of the officers in the engagement said:

"We gave them a larger dose of the same stuff" in the ensuing battle of the Coral sea, which lasted a week.

Lieut. Commanders Joseph Taylor, Danville, Illinois, and William Burch, Paducah, Kentucky, vividly described the blistering attack on the enemy base 1,000 miles northeast of Australia on little Florida island in the center of the Solomon group.

Burch said:

Loaded for Kill

"Aboard the carrier we had not heard anything about the little harbor of Tulagi until late one night when word was passed over the loudspeaker: 'Prepare all squadrons for attack on ships in the harbor at Tulagi at dawn.' It was a complete surprise. Our task force had been hunting the enemy in the Coral sea.

"Long before dawn, we were ready and anxious for the takeoff.

"We got over Tulagi in early morning, every plane in position and carrying a full load of torpedoes and bombs. We didn't know what to expect but there below we could see through rifts of clouds the harbor filled with troops and transports."

Taylor told of the launching of the actual attack.

Hit 'Em High and Low

"Well, I sorta figured the Marquis of Queensbury rules were out," he said, "so I said to Bill, 'You hit 'em high and I'll hit 'em low. From then on every man for himself.'

"As soon as I saw what ships were in the harbor, I instructed the pilots which ones to hit. In a melee there is no time for detailed assignments we just went to work with torpedoes and bombs.

"The only thing I clearly remember as the dive-bombers pushed over into screaming dives was that each pilot was yelling something into his radiophone, some cussing but most yelling 'Remember Pearl Harbor.'

"We did not catch the Japanese exactly flat-footed, but they got up no anti-aircraft fire until the attack had started. By that time, it was too late."

Harbor In Flames

"When we completed the attack," Burch said, "the harbor was filled with sunken and burning ships, a few of which managed to crawl to the beach to keep from sinking.

"Nine were definitely sunk, possibly eleven. This included two heavy cruisers, three light cruiser, two destroyers and two large transports. In addition we sank numerous small boats and lighters strafing. We believe we also sank a seaplane tender and a third transport. The whole harbor was strewn with smoking wreckage.

"And I am happy to say we lost absolutely nothing. A couple of our boys brought back a few holes in their planes, but none of the personnel was even scratched.

"This was the first touchdown in the game at Coral sea, which lasted a week."

Asked about the main action at Coral sea, Burch said:

"All that I can tell is that we gave them a larger dose of the same stuff we handed them at Tulagi."

County Cited For Work On Salvage

Adams county has been placed on the state roll of honor in the recent Farm Salvage for Victory drive by the state council of defense, an announcement from Harrisburg discloses.

The salvage campaign, conducted throughout Adams county last week under the supervision of O. H. Benson, county salvage chairman, gathered about 808 tons and topped the 720-ton quota set up on the basis of the state council's request for 500 pounds of scrap metal from every farm in the state. The state quota was 40,000 tons of scrap metal.

On the basis of reports submitted by 65 counties in the state, 47,775 tons of scrap iron and steel were collected and 525 tons of scrap rubber.

GAS RATIONING DOUBLED UNDER EXTENDED TIME

Washington, June 12 (AP)—East coast motorists, facing a hard-boiled new gasoline rationing program next month, got a two-week reprieve today plus the good news that beginning Monday non-essential drivers may buy six gallons instead of three with each unit left on their ration cards.

The present temporary ration plan was scheduled originally to be replaced on June 30 by a regular coupon book system, but the Office of Price Administration announced yesterday the changeover would be deferred until July 15.

Train Registrars

The extra two weeks will be required to train registrars and ration boards under the more detailed regulations of the new program.

Effective at 12:01 a. m. June 15, OPA said the unit value of "A" and "B" ration cards now in use will be doubled in an effort to furnish motorists with enough gasoline to carry them through the two-week extension period.

Thus, drivers who have used their ration cards sparingly so far will be able to buy considerably more gasoline than did those whose cards are almost exhausted.

If a driver has used up his entire ration, he can expect no additional supplies—except in an emergency—until July 1. He must apply to his local ration board and pass the usual tests for supplemental rations sufficient to tide him over the July 1-15 gap.

All "A" Books

No dates have been set for the new registration, when all passenger car drivers will be issued a basic "A" book containing 48 coupons.

Car owners obtain applications for extra rations when they register and file them later with local boards for action. All supplemental ration allowances will be based solely on the necessary mileage a motorist must drive—taking into account enforced pooling, as well as availability of public transportation facilities.

Joel Dean, OPA fuel rationing administrator, has said the value of each coupon in the passenger car ration books, under the new plan, would be four gallons. OPA has figured that automobiles average 15 miles to a gallon of gas. Thus, non-essential motorists with 48 coupons will be able to drive about 2,880 miles a year on the average—more in lighter cars which get a greater mileage per gallon.

Carefree Driving

In a radio broadcast last night, Dean said 1,000 miles of this was for "family convenience," to take care of such emergencies as "taking the baby to the doctor, or bringing the children home from school on a stormy day, rushing to the sick-bed of a member of the family, or even moving the family in case of emergency such as an air raid, flood or fire."

The balance of the mileage—1,880—is intended for to-and-from-work driving. Presumably, if such driving consumes more than 1,880 miles, the car owner is privileged to apply for supplemental rations.

Factory Employes Luncheon Guests

Fifty-six workers of the Gettysburg Shirt factory were tendered a chicken dinner at noon today at the factory by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Phillips who recently sold the plant to the Standard Garment company, Columbia. The new owners took charge today.

The employes presented Mr. and Mrs. Phillips with an electric chime clock in appreciation of their "continued employment despite many adverse conditions from time to time." In making the presentation Mr. and Mrs. Phillips were thanked for the courteous treatment of their workers. Irving Bierer was an additional guest at the dinner.

COURT ORDER DEFERS SALE

The postponed sheriff's sale of furnishings and fixtures of the Cross Keys inn, scheduled for Saturday morning after a week's postponement, has again been delayed—this time for an indefinite period by action of the federal district court.

John P. Butt, Esq., counsel for H. W. and Miriam Shutz, said this morning that the district court on Thursday handed down a restraining order that will not permit the sale to be held Saturday as planned. The same order refers the case to Walter H. Compton, Esq., referee in bankruptcy for this area, for hearing. Mr. Butt indicated that the hearing is to be conducted as a reopening of bankruptcy proceedings through which the inn property passed last year.

Notices for the sheriff's sale were posted after an execution writ was issued out of Prothonotary Lee M. Hartman's office on the basis of a claim entered by Charles Bittinger, near Hanover.

LOCAL CHURCH IS BEQUEATHED $500 AND HOME

St. James Lutheran church is willed $500 and eventual ownership of a dwelling and two acres of land in Cumberland township along the Fairfield road under the terms of the will of the late Miss Bessie M. Everhart, who died last Sunday in a Philadelphia hospital. The deceased was a member of St. James church.

The trustees of the church are willed $500 outright "to be used by them at their discretion for anything excepting foreign missions."

In a pencilled codicil to the original document, the Rev. R. R. Gresh is bequeathed $50 "in appreciation of his help and comfort to me."

Miss Everhart's late home about two miles from here, along the north side of the Fairfield road, is offered to several members of her family as a residence for the remainder of their lives. If they reject it the church receives it immediately under the terms of the will and in any event it will go to the church at the end of their life tenancy.

The house and two-acre lot is offered first to Curtis Everhart and Edna Everhart, brother and sister-in-law of the deceased. It is specified that they may use it only as a residence and may not add to or change the dwelling in any way. If Edna and Curtis Everhart do not wish to use the dwelling as their residence for the remainder of their lives, then a sister of the deceased, Blanche Everhart Weikert, may have it. If Mrs. Weikert does not accept it, then another sister, Mrs. Frances E. Clark, will have to decide whether she will accept it under the same terms.

In event none of the sisters or the brother desires to use the dwelling it is to go to the church "to be used as a neighborhood house for the purpose of bettering the condition of rural children."

The brother, Curtis Everhart, West Lincoln avenue, and a sister, Mrs. Mazie Rarig, Danville, are the executors.

The estate is estimated to be worth about $4,000 in personal property and $3,000 in real estate. The latter sum represents the value placed upon the Fairfield road property.

Many Mercantile Taxes Are Unpaid

An indication that additional business establishments in this county may be planning to close their doors in the near future is seen in the fact that nearly 400 businesses in the county have not yet paid their mercantile tax to the state. The tax has been payable since May 1 and must be paid by the end of this month to avoid a penalty.

Records at the office of County Treasurer John W. Brehm show that only about 600 businessmen have paid their annual levy up to the present time.

U.S. Wants All Scrap Rubber; Will Pay One Penny A Pound; Gas Stations Will Be Depots; Collections Start On Monday

Washington, June 12 (AP)—President Roosevelt announced today an intensive campaign for collection of the nation's old scrap rubber supply would start June 15 and last through June 30.

Individuals were urged by the Chief Executive to search their basements, attics and back yards for all items of rubber that have been discarded or can be discarded.

Through arrangements with the oil industry 400,000 filling stations will serve as collection depots. They will pay one cent a pound for the rubber brought in, and the government will reimburse them that sum.

President Roosevelt, declaring that the rubber situation was extremely serious, again urged the people to cut down on pleasure driving and reduce both automobile speed and mileage.

He told a press conference he had no idea when a person with four tires might be able to get new ones. It may be a long, long time, he said. So, he added, it is a matter of common sense to make existing tires wear as long as possible.

Reporters noted that he had mentioned persons with four tires and inquired whether that meant that owners of five might not have five very long. The President said he did not know.

The collection drive will be inaugurated at 12:01 a. m., on Monday, June 15, and conclude at midnight on Tuesday, June 30. Thus it will last through 16 full days. Actually, the President will start it off informally with a five minute radio talk tonight at 6:45 o'clock, eastern war time.

Ship Explodes Several Hours After Attack

Washington, June 12 (AP)—The War department reported today that Major General Clarence L. Tinker, commander of the Hawaiian Air Force, was missing after the battle of Midway.

Washington, June 12 (AP)—The Navy announced today the loss of the U. S. aircraft carrier Lexington as a result of the battle of the Coral sea which prevented the Japanese from invading or isolating Australia.

The loss was disclosed in connection with an official review of the Navy's part in the entire Coral sea campaign, starting March 10 at New Guinea and running through May 8 when enemy aircraft inflicted such damage on the Lexington, that several hours later she exploded and sank, with a relatively light loss of life.

The Lexington's normal complement was 2,300 men. The Navy said 92 per cent of the personnel on board was rescued. The Navy communique did not say how many of the Lexington's fighting planes were lost, but officials commented that "obviously planes were lost."

U. S. Loses 3 Ships

The review showed that the Coral sea campaign, ending disastrously for the enemy, cost the Japanese more than 15 ships sunk, 2 probably sunk and 20 damaged while the only American losses were the 33,000-ton Lexington, the tanker Neosho and the destroyer Sims.

A large part of the personnel from the Neosho and Sims was rescued and has reached port.

Jap Losses Are Severe

As against these losses which the Navy said had been instrumental in disrupting Japan's strategy against Australia, the Navy announced the Japanese had suffered:

Sunk: 1 aircraft carrier, 3 heavy cruisers, 1 light cruiser, 2 destroyers, several transports and small supply vessels.

Severely damaged and probably sunk: 1 cruiser, 1 destroyer.

Severely damaged: More than 20 ships including 1 aircraft carrier, 3 cruisers, 2 aircraft tenders, 3 destroyers.

Japs Lose 100 Planes

The enemy also suffered a loss of more than 100 aircraft, the Navy declared.

The heaviest losses of the enemy were inflicted in an attack on Salamaua and Lae, New Guinea, March 10 when aircraft from a Pacific fleet task force commanded by Vice Admiral Wilson Brown joined shore-based planes from Australia to attack the enemy bases.

This attack, previously reported as having been made, although the fact that carrier-based planes participated had not been given out, resulted in the sinking or damaging of more than 20 Japanese ships plus heavy damage to shore installations.

The second phase of the campaign was the battle of the Coral sea which started May 4 after reconnaissance had shown concentrations of enemy shipping and aircraft in preparation for an advance into the Solomon and Louisiade islands.

Retaliatory Blow

Task force which first participated in this fight was commanded by Rear Admiral Frank J. Fletcher which attacked a part of the enemy armada anchored in and near the harbor of Tulagi, in the Solomon group, and all but annihilated it. The results of this engagement, previously announced by the Navy, were sinking or damaging of 12 Jap vessels and destruction of 6 aircraft with a loss of but 3 American craft.

Next day American forces shot down a 4-engined flying boat.

On May 7, the Navy communique related, Fletcher's aircraft hit the main body of the Japanese force in the Louisiade Archipelago off Mesiam. A new Japanese aircraft carrier, the Ryukaku, and a heavy cruiser were sunk, an enemy counter attack was fought off successfully. The enemy lost 25 aircraft compared to 6 for the U. S. forces, which consisted of both naval and army planes from Australia.

Lose Two on May 7

On May 7, however, Jap planes located and bombed the tanker

SUGAR BOARDS WORK OVERTIME

With expanded staffs of helpers on the job this afternoon and scheduled to return to work this evening, the 12 sugar application centers in the county were prepared for expected last-day rushes by housewives for extra sugar for canning.

Most of the registration centers have asked the county rationing board office for additional supplies reporting that Thursday's volume of applications was double and at some places triple that handled on Wednesday.

At Gettysburg high school a staff of 25 clerks worked from 2 to 10:30 p. m. with less than an hour's intermission for their evening meal and brought to about 1,300 the total number of sugar applications handled there in two days.

At Biglerville Wednesday's volume was more than doubled and at Arendtsville 157 applications were handled, nearly three times the number taken care of on Wednesday. Cashtown reported 197 applications on Thursday and Fairfield, 276.

On the basis of partial reports, it was estimated today that a total of 5,000 applications may have been handled throughout the county, Thursday.

HOSPITAL REPORT

John Powell, Fifth street, and Betty Jane Lazos, Water street, submitted to appendectomies at the Warner hospital Thursday.

Mrs. Wilbur Hankey, McKnightstown, has been admitted as a patient. Those discharged were Richard Creager, Thurmont; Earl Linebaugh, Fairfield R. 1; Mrs. Mary Stevens, Gettysburg, and Mrs. William Dentler and infant daughter, Donna Marie, Cashtown.

BIG THREE TO POLICE WORLD FOR 20 YEARS

By DE WITT MACKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst

So finally we have formilization of the thought which long has been in the minds of observers—that the United States, Britain and Russia were bound to emerge from the war as the Big Three who would be guardians of the remodeled world until it reached its majority.

This trio of giants represents the great bulk of the resources and strength of the globe they will form an all powerful, an invincible, but benevolent partnership. Perhaps instead of calling them the Big Three we might more appropriately designate them as the Big Brothers of the weak.

We used to speculate about how America and Britain could maintain order in a naughty world if they only would combine their vast strengths to that end. Not only has this "impossibility" been achieved, but mighty Russia, which exercises such great influence over both Europe and Asia, now has joined the brotherhood.

March as One

That to me is the significance of the Anglo-Russian treaty of mutual assistance and the subsequent agreements between Washington and Moscow. Since America and Britain already were in accord, the three nations now march as one towards fulfilment of the historic eight-point program for a better world laid down in the Atlantic conference between the President and British Premier Churchill. When that plan has been achieved it will have answered the dreams of man since dreams began.

Let's make it stronger. We undoubtedly stand on the threshold of one of the major epochs of history. The opportunity is about to be given us to do more than ever has been done before in implementing the teachings of the sermon on the mount, which marked another great epoch. We are reaching this opportunity through a valley of tears—but we are arriving.

Decisive Struggle

Few developments could have given the allied peoples greater courage to carry out the immediate task before us—the wiping out of Hitler and Hitlerism. This momentous agreement comes as we finally have struggled to the crest of the hill and are at grips with Hitler in the decisive struggle.

Surely it's more than coincidence that the agreements come as the sinister Nazi over-lord is sparring for a weak spot through which he can break the Red ranks. It will sustain the Russians, and all the Allies, in this crucial moment upon which the course of the war depends.

Moscow tells us today that the Allied agreement on the urgent task of creating a second front in Europe in 1942 has cheered the capital. Vast street crowds listened in impressed silence last night as the radio told of the new commitments, and Soviet officials expressed profound satisfaction.

Reds Face Battle

That is well, for there's blood on the Russian moon. A host of men are about to die in the sanguinary conflict which must be fought to satisfy the lust of Hitler. And Red troops must bear the greater part of this awful burden, so far as concerns the actual battlefield.

Out in the Orient the Japs, unhappily nursing their wounds from Midway, must be uneasy over the Allied agreements. They undoubtedly are worrying for fear there is soundness in the belief expressed in congressional quarters in Washington that the understanding between the President and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov may result in the eventual opening of Russian air bases to American bombers operating against Japan.

This fear on the part of the Nipponese, by the way, might be sufficient to impel them to attack Russia in the near future, so as to have the benefit of cooperating with Hitler's drive in the west.

MORE TAXES IN EARLY FUTURE; LEVIES BOOSTED

By DONALD A. YOUNG

Washington, June 12 (AP)—A record-breaking $6,000,000,000 program of new taxes has been approved tentatively by the House ways and means committee, with the prospect that more millions—perhaps billions—would be added before legislation reaches the house.

A tabulation today showed that the committee, approaching the end of a study of the administration's request for $8,700,000,000 in additional revenue, already had agreed upon $6,087,000,000, with votes remaining only on a few minor excise taxes.

The committee yesterday voted to double the present 5 per cent tax on fares paid for transportation; to raise the tax on a package of cigarettes from 6½ to 7 cents; to increase the present cigar tax materially; to add 6 cents to the present 18-cent-pound smoking tobacco tax, and to jump the cigarette paper and tube levy to ½ cent on each package of 25.

Sales Tax—?

Members said that once they dispose of a few other excise items they will face the question of stopping there or proceeding to consideration of a sales tax to bring billions of dollars more into the Treasury to help finance the war and control inflation. It has been estimated that a 5 per cent retail sales tax would raise $2,500,000,000.

As the committee took up a discussion of taxes on soft drinks, photographic equipment, transportation by pipe line and telephonic and telegraphic communications, its accomplished work shaped up this way:

Individual taxes, $2,750,000,000; corporation taxes, $2,500,000,000; mandatory joint returns by husbands and wives, $350,000,000; excise taxes, $487,000,000.

Breaking a two-day impasse over the controversial question of tobacco taxes, the committee began moving more rapidly yesterday with votes on five excises. Should all the other excises be approved as the Treasury recommended, the committee still would be about $2,450,000,000 short of the Treasury's goal.

R. C. DONATION

An anonymous donor added $1 to the Red Cross war relief fund today and brought the fund up to $12,472.28. Mrs. E. S. Lewars, county chapter chairman, has asked organizations, individuals and business places to contribute initial or additional sums to the fund this week so that the $13,000 goal may be reached by next Monday, June 15.

MORE AID TO FAR PACIFIC BASES OF U.S.

By CLARK LEE

Pearl Harbor, June 12 (AP)—Speedy American reinforcements may be sent to western Pacific bases and all Pacific key points, it is predicted as a result of the battle of Midway.

The Japanese defeat is felt to have removed, at least for the predictable future, any threat that the mainland of the United States might be invaded.

Therefore, it is believed such forces which may have been held on the west coast of the United States as a defense against possible invasion have now been freed and can be sent to areas where they are more urgently needed.

Value of Air Strength

The battle of Midway showed the effectiveness of aircraft in coastal defense to such an extent that any area with sufficient aerial protection may feel reasonably safe from invasion.

In the Coral sea and the Midway battles, both the Japanese and Americans followed the same attacking tactics, sending in first the dive bombers and torpedo planes against the aircraft carriers, which are the most important target.

The vital job in such action is to knockout the carriers, and the Americans successfully did this in both parties. The dive bombers and torpedo planes went in so close they couldn't miss the enemy carriers. The Japanese found there is no way for a surface vessel to evade determined dive bomber and torpedo attacks.

Then, with the enemy carriers either sunk or out of commission and the enemy ships deprived of fighter protection, our heavy bombers attacked and slammed the remaining enemy ships fleeing from the Midway area.

Follow-Up Bombing

For this follow-up bombing, long-range, land-based planes are desirable, in addition to the American Navy's patrol-bombers, which have proven invaluable for locating the enemy fleets.

Of course, if the Midway battle had gone the other way and the Japanese had sunk our carriers and knocked out Midway, the Hawaiian islands probably would be fighting an invasion today.

When the United States goes on the offensive and starts moving overseas against the Japanese, we will face a problem similar to that which confronted the Japanese at Midway—to knock out the enemy airforce. Then the issue will depend upon the courage of our airmen and the skill of our aircraft builders.

SENATE GETS APPROPRIATION BILL FOR WPA

Washington, June 12 (AP) — A $336,000,000 appropriation bill to continue the WPA on a war-curtailed basis was sent to the Senate today after the relief agency survived a desperate drive in the House to abilish it.

Far less than the $2,230,000,000 allotment which provided work for 3,000,000 jobless in the agency's peak year of 1939, the new supply bill carried funds sufficient to employ an average of 400,000 a month, beginning July 1.

An acrimonious, two-day floor battle saw a Republican-sponsored attempt to cut the allocation by one-third and place supervision of relief directly with the states go down to defeat on a roll call vote of 183 to 140.

Haines for WPA

The vote of Pennsylvanians on the measure:

Democrats for: Faddis, Moser.

Republicans for: Gerlack, Kinzer, Rich, Rodgers, Scott, Simpson.

Democrats against: Bradley, Eberharter, Haines, Kelley, McGrannery, Myers, Scanlon, Smith, Snyder, Weiss, Wright.

Republicans against: Fenton, Van Zandt.

Only a few minutes earlier, administration forces had beaten back, 184 to 133, a move to prevent the WPA from starting any new projects except those certified as essential by the secretary of War, secretary of Navy, or the Maritime Commission chairman.

A fight to abolish the WPA altogether, on the ground that it no longer was necessary because of the war's stimulus to industry, was lost by a tellers' vote of 109 to 60.

As finally passed by roll call vote of 277 to 53, the measure bundled up direct appropriations of $280,000,000 plus reappropriations of $56,000,000 in relief funds unexpended during the current fiscal year.

Women Are Barred From Work In Mines

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—Mi-lady will never work in or around Pennsylvania coal mines—unless existing laws are changed.

Commenting on the state's mine labor shortage and a United States government report that Germany is using feminine mine labor, Mine Secretary Richard Maize said today:

"Women are absolutely prohibited by statute from working in or around anthracite and bituminous mines.

"I can't see any way around the statutes even if the labor shortage increases unless there is an act of Legislature—and the Legislature does not meet until 1943."

The Federal Bureau of Mines had reported in Washington that German women over 18 are engaged in all types of mining work except underground.

Trailer Hits Bus, Wrecks Toll House

Irwin, Pa., June 12 (AP)—Three persons were injured early today, state police reported, when a trailer-truck struck the rear end of a parked bus and wrecked a toll house at the western terminal of the Pennsylvania turnpike.

Corporal Frank McKetta said a Pittsburgh-bound National Trailways bus had just stopped at the toll house when the collision occurred. Passengers on the bus, who were shaken up, were transferred to another bus and continued their journey.

Daniel Evans, 25, of Irwin, and John Chalfante, 36, of Youngwood, turnpike employes, were cut and taken to Westmoreland hospital, Greensburg, for observation. The truck driver, Calvin Scheall, 29, of Michigan, suffered cuts and a shoulder dislocation and was also hospitalized.

A group of boys from Brysonia, "The Happy Campers," spent the past week-end at the Brysonia hunting camp.

RED CRIMEAN FORCES STAGE COUNTER PUSH

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

Moscow, June 12 (AP)—After beating off a week of virtually constant German onslaughts, defenders at the Crimean Naval base of Sevastopol have counter-attacked and improved some of their positions, Russian Army dispatches said today.

There were no further details from the Ukraine where a communique at midnight said, Russian forces were putting up a violent defensive fight against the advance of Field Marshal General Fedor Von Bock's tanks and infantry east of Kharkov.

A war bulletin this morning said there had been no important changes overnight, and did not mention the Kharkov sector.

(The German high command said Von Bock's attacks in the new Kharkov offensive were successful and increasing in volume.

(On the Sevastopol front, the high command communique said, attacks around numerous defense works of the Russians "gained ground in stubborn fighting. Repeated enemy counter-attacks collapsed with heavy losses."

(The high command communique indicated that the Germans had taken the offensive in the Ukraine as well as on the Crimean peninsula and were fighting on a widening front east of Kharkov. Just how strong was the offensive was not indicated in the official report.

(A DNB broadcast from Berlin said attacks at Sevastopol and southeast of German-held Kharkov were necessary preliminaries to Adolf Hitler's "coming offensive." Immediate objectives were described as the reduction of Sevastopol, which DNB termed "the strongest fortress in the world," and straightening of German lines below Kharkov.)

Nearly 15,000 Germans have been killed and more than 50 tanks and 60 planes destroyed by the defenders of Sevastopol in three days, the midnight communique declared.

Nazi Atrocities

Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov, who represented the Soviet Union in both London and Washington conferences, issued a 1,200-word diplomatic note charging deliberate atrocities to the German high command.

Molotov said the Nazi plans embraced "extermination of the Soviet population, prisoners of war and guerrilla fighters by bloody violence, torture and executions, and the massacre of Soviet citizens, irrespective of their nationalities, social standing, sex or age."

Its displacement of 33,000 tons went up to 40,000 tons under full load, and Jane's fighting ships listed its complement, including flying personnel, at 2,122, including 169 officers.

The Neosho, commissioned in 1937, was a 25,000-ton vessel. The Sims, 1570-ton destroyer, was commissioned in August, 1939, and was the first new destroyer announced to have been lost in fighting in the southwestern Pacific.

Bill Lee And Claude Passeau, "On Block" Last Winter, Are Mainstays Of Cubs

TWO FLINGERS WIN 17 GAMES FOR CHICAGOANS

By JUDSON BAILEY
The Associated Press

The Chicago Cubs had Bill Lee and Claude Passeau, their veteran pitchers, on the block last winter and it is scarcely more than luck that this pair still wears those odd suits the Bruins use for baseball uniforms.

Yet today Passeau and Lee between them have accounted for 17 of the Cubs' 25 victories in the National league and one wonders where the sixth place Chicago club would be if either or both of these big righthanders had been traded.

Lee won his eighth game Wednesday and Passeau followed with his ninth yesterday in the shape of a five-hit 7-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

Cards-Dodgers Called

The only tally the tailenders made resulted from a fumble by Bill Nicholson in the second inning after Nick Etten had singled.

It was Passeau's 11th straight complete game and his seventh straight win, although the sequence was interrupted by a siege of appendicitis which kept him in a hospital all last week.

The Cubs made 11 hits, three of them by Lou Novikoff.

The only other National league encounter scheduled was between the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals and for the third day in a row weather kept these feudists idle.

Half the American league program also had to be postponed, although the Detroit Tigers and New York Yankees made a start. The game lasted long enough for Catcher Buddy Rosar of the Yankees to sprain a muscle in his left leg and have to be helped off the field. Bill Dickey had been hurt the day before and this left the Yanks with only one able-bodied catcher, Ed Kearse, a rookie from Kansas City, who never had caught an inning in the major leagues.

Browns Bounced Again

He went behind the bat for the Tigers' half of the third inning and then the game was halted with Detroit leading 2-1.

The Boston Red Sox completed a sweep of their three-game series with the St. Louis Browns by winning 8-7 on a ninth-inning run which Jim Tabor singled home. Each team used three pitchers and St. Louis made 13 hits, two more than Boston and including homers by George McQuinn, Frank Hayes and Tony Criscola.

Cleveland also completed a sweep of its series at Washington by rallying for four runs in the ninth inning to beat the Senators 8-6.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Feature

New York, June 12—Squire Gene Sarazen, who probably is the No. 1 exhibition golfer, announces that the time has come to cut down on war relief exhibitions because "they're beginning to defeat their own purpose." . . . Gene's idea is to concentrate on the big events like the Hale America and the Ryder Cup matches that will bring out a lot of bucks, and instead of a lot of exhibitions have each golfer buy one $25 war bond, besides those he's buying anyway, and toss it into a golf pool. . . . Ford Frick, the National league prexy, figures that take of almost $14,000 for the Cards' relief game was just as good a showing as Brooklyn's $60,000—considering the way the two clubs usually draw and that the Browns played one only nine days before the Cards. . . . Dave Freeman, the National Badminton champ, plans to enter Harvard Medical school next fall. The way he plays, those Harvard boys probably will insist on calling it goodminton.

THE PRACTICAL SIDE

Reporting that other Pacific Coast League clubs are adopting the Seattle team's practice of raising the American flag before each game, a Seattle sports columnist commented: "It's patriotic, and the drift of the flag shows the outfielders how the wind is blowing."

SERVICE DEPT.

The Navy's dime novel fans can be happy now—Nick Carter has just signed up with the physical fitness staff. . . . This Nick was football and baseball coach at the Gilman school, Baltimore. . . . When Jud Bailey, the AP baseball expert, wrote that Bucky Harris was thinking of hanging a picture of Pvt. Cecil Travis in the Washington dugout just recall what a good infielder looked like, the Camp Wheeler, Georgia Public Relations office sent Bucky a half dozen. . . . Pvt. James G. Hall, who is a little better known as J. Gilbert Hall, the veteran tennis player, reports that there's no comparison between the tank he's driving at Fort Knox, Kentucky, and the one he chauffeured during World War 1. . . . "The new ones are much smoother to ride in and much easier to handle," he says. . . . Robert Clair and Albert De Angelis, who won the National Double Sculls Rowing championship for the Worcester Boat club last summer, aren't doubling up in the Army. Clair was last reported in the Pacific northwest and De Angelis in Florida.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Art Rosenbaum, San Francisco Chronicle: "In ye olden days, a good coach was one who could find a summer job for every man on his squad. . . . Now a good coach is one who can be certain his men will return from their summer jobs."

DOUBLE X MARKS THE SPOT

It seems the Red Sox had a pretty good idea what was coming before Jimmy Foxx was sold to the Cubs. . . . A couple of days before the deal was made, manager Joe Cronin came into the dressing room and asked: "Has anyone got a first baseman's glove?" . . . "Who hasn't, on this ball club?" retorted Tony Lupien, a first sacker himself.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Mrs. Ray Roy, wife of Notre Dame's track captain, conducts a guitar school and an 80-piece guitar band that is noted throughout the midwest. . . . That band has been practicing hard on "Anchor's Aweigh" since Ray applied for a Naval Reserve commission. . . . Tiny Cahoon, former Milwaukee chief's football coach, is recreation director at the Elwood, Illinois, ordinance plant, but when the explosion went off last week, Tiny was asleep in Joliet, 16 miles away. . . . Ed Head, the Dodgers' rookie flinger, wants a crack at the Cardinals because he never lost a game to one of their farms. In the Evangeline league he beat New Siberia five straight and last year at Montreal he won three from Rochester.

Safe After Nylon Parachute Leap

Adeline Gray, 24, sits beside the nylon parachute which she used to make a 2,000-foot leap above Brainard Field near Hartford, Conn. Her jump was the first "live" test of a parachute made of nylon instead of silk. Miss Gray has made 33 parachute jumps.

SOUTHERN CAL MEET FAVORITE

Lincoln, Neb., June 12 (AP)—Coach Dean Cromwell of Southern California is confident of an eighth straight N.C.A.A. track championship in the annual meet opening tonight, yet is respectful of his team's opposition.

"You've got to be a champion to finish last in this meet," he commented as his squad of 17 took the field for a workout. He said Leroy Weed, co-captain of the Troy squad, could give Les MacMitchell, N.Y.U. "all he wants" in the mile.

"But," said Cromwell, "I'm downright sorry that Les got beat last week, for he is liable to come out here plenty mad and make it tough on everybody."

Summing up his squad's chances, Cromwell commented "we just happen to have the boys." The squad is the largest entered by any school.

Eagerly awaited are the times of Hal Davis, California, and Barney Ewell, Penn State, in the 100, which fans figure to be the outstanding race, with the mile, in the finals. Ewell is defending champion, having won the last two years, and Davis had a time of 9.4, equalling the world mark, on the west coast.

Ewell also is defending champion in the 220. Other titleholders returning were Bob Wright, Ohio State, both hurdles; Campbell Kane, Indiana, the 880; Hubert Kerns, Southern California, the 440, and MacMitchell in the mile.

Of the 200 athletes from 49 universities and colleges entered, Ewell probably will be the busiest. He was entered in the broad jump as well as the dashes.

8 ARMY FLIERS KILLED IN CRASH

Sarasota, Fla., June 12 (AP)—Eight army fliers were killed and two injured early today when a four-engined bomber crashed into Sarasota bay.

Major Gardiner Fiske, Sarasota air base intelligence officer, said the heavy ship had cleared the runway on a pre-dawn training flight and gone about a mile when it went out of control. It landed on its back in a foot and a half of water about 200 feet from shore and two of the crew were pulled from the wreckage with only minor injuries.

Major Fiske said identities had not been fully established and the crew list was withheld temporarily.

Demaret And Hogan Lead In Golf Play

Toledo, O., June 12 (AP)—Sixteen of the nation's hot-shot professionals aimed to lay down another birdie barrage today in the second round of the $7,650 eight annual Inverness best-ball matches, with 14 of the play-for-pay boys pursuing those Torrid Texans, Jimmy Demaret and Ben Hogan, the 1941 winners.

The Lone Star state lads ripped six strokes off par yesterday, each getting three birdies, to win a four-up decision over Denny Shute and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison. That put the defending champions out front, but they meet the second place duo, Henry Picard and Sam Byrd, today.

Asks Federation Aid Transportation

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., June 12 (AP)—Judge Howard W. Hughes, president, called upon the Pennsylvania Motor Federation today to exert every effort to solve the problem of home-to-factory transportation for war workers.

There must be a "complete adjustment of our club services to meet war-time conditions," Hughes said in a prepared address at the Federation's 36th annual convention.

He proposed that the 6-1 clubs in the organization shift their attention from aiding vacationing autoists and listed as another objective the completion of a campaign . . . "to eliminate the special one cent per gallon sales tax on gasoline and put an end to the diversion of all motorist money to non-highway purposes."

The convention ends tomorrow with election of officers.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

A one-hit pitching exhibition and the law of percentages juggled positions in the first division of the Eastern league last night.

Alex Mustaikis, afforded able support by his Williamsport Gray mates, stood the Binghamton triplets on their heads to the tune of 5-0. The defeat blasted them out of third place.

The Hartford Laurels hung their fifth straight defeat on the Scranton Miners, 4-0, behind Warren Spahn's three-hit hurling. The loss put the Miners in a tie with Albany for the lead.

Albany snapped Elmira's four-game victory streak with a 9-2 triumph, but it was costly. Jim Cullinane, young Albany third baseman, was struck on the head by one of Bill Strickland's pitches in the first inning and was carried from the field unconscious. Doctors feared he had suffered a skull fracture but ordered X-rays to confirm the diagnosis.

The Wilkes-Barre Barons laid down a three-run barrage in the second to best Springfield 3-0 as Allie Reynolds gained his fourth pitching victory and credit for a three-hitter.

The most nearly complete plesiosaur skeleton known was found in Colorado.

ALSAB SHELVED FOR A MONTH

New York, June 12 (AP)—Those roses that Alsab missed in the Kentucky Derby would be highly appreciated today by Mrs. Albert Sabath's wonder colt, who will be confined to quarters for at least a month with the first serious ailment of his colorful and profitable career.

A blind splint, that bony growth on the side of the splint bone discernible only by X-ray, was discovered yesterday on one of Alsab's forelegs, making Shut Out's principal rival strictly a shut in.

Trainer Sarge Swenke said Alsab carried the injury into the Belmont Stakes last Saturday when he wound up a well-beaten second to Shut Out, Mrs. Payne Whitney's Chocolate Charger who also topped him in the Derby.

After winning the Preakness and the Withers, Alsab was favored to show his heels to Shut Out at Belmont, but he never came through with his usual kick in the stretch and the son of Equipoise triumphed by three lengths.

The rivals for three-year-old honors were to have continued their dueling in the $25,000 Dwyer Stakes at Aqueduct a week from tomorrow, but Alsab will miss that one as well as the $25,000 Yankee handicap on the Fourth of July at Suffolk Downs.

LOOKING AROUND

By DON BREAM
Sports Editor

There seems little likelihood that the championship of the Adams County Scholastic Baseball league will be settled definitely until fall. Biglerville took two of three games from York Springs high to take the honors but York Springs entered a protest on the playing of Arnold, an eighth grade student. A meeting of league officials is required to hear a protest and due to many of the teachers now being at their homes or out of the county a meeting is almost impossible at this time.

The Boston Braves are heading for a record never before achieved by a Boston National league baseball entry—the home run championship. The Braves rammed out 35 homers before starting on their present western jaunt to take a six-homer lead over the New York Giants. Accounting for 11 of the circuit clouts are the battery of Tobin and Lombardi. Last year the Boston team hit but 48 round trippers and finished last in the league.

Frank Hoerst, pitcher for the Phils, is tough to score on after the first three innings of a ball game. In his first eight starts this year he yielded 15 runs in the first three innings and only six in all the innings after the third.

Leon "Goose" Goslin, former Washington Senator star, holds the record for hitting into double plays during a single game. He hit into four on April 28, 1924.

"Al" Benton, Detroit pitcher, holds the record for most sacrifices in one inning. He sacrificed twice in a single inning on August 6, 1941.

GANG LEADER DIES

Pittsburgh, June 12 (AP)—John (Socks) Schrocki, 30 of Rafkin, leader of the "Little Blue Bandana gang" which took more than $36,000 in a dozen holdups several years ago, died of heart disease in Western penitentiary Wednesday. He was serving a sentence of 70 to 140 years.

BILLY SOOSE WEDS SUNDAY

East Greenville, Pa., June 12 (AP)—Billy Soose, former middleweight boxing champion, will be married Sunday to Miss Margaret Unger, former Smith college student, her mother announced today.

The lanky Farrell, Pa., fighter will come here for the ceremony from Norfolk, Va., where he is stationed with the U. S. Naval Reserve.

When their engagement was announced last December Soose said he would "keep the parson waiting until I've won the heavyweight title." The couple met in 1940 while the boxer was training at Lake Wallenpaupack in the Pocono mountains.

"Peggy isn't so keen on fighting," he said later. "She saw me fight once—but never again."

Soose's former manager, Paul Moss, will act as best man at the ceremony in Miss Unger's home and Catharine Gardiner of Washington, D. C., her former college room-mate, will be maid of honor.

After a honeymoon in the Poconos they will live at Virginia Beach, Va., near Norfolk.

Miss Unger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Unger.

HOW TO BUY A NEW* 1942 PONTIAC
In addition to physicians, nurses, ministers and those in certain civic services, all persons directly or indirectly connected with the war's prosecution are eligible to purchase a new car. This regulation has behind it the patriotic purpose of enabling these persons to replace worn and inefficient cars with modern, economical transportation. If you are in any way connected with a war activity—or if your present car should be replaced—come in. We will help you determine whether you are eligible, and then help you get a "certificate of purchase" on a new Pontiac.
*Produced late in 1941. Now, Pontiac is building nothing but arms for victory.
CHOOSING A NEW car today compels you to look ahead, because it may have to serve you for a long, long time. If ever a car was "tailor made" for these conditions, it's the 1942 Pontiac. Thanks to fine engineering, Pontiac can be expected to deliver miles of economical, trouble-free operation, plus remarkable tire conservation. Pontiac is still priced just above the lowest—and can be purchased on convenient monthly terms.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

ILLUSIONS

I love illusions. From early boyhood, however, literally scores and score of them have been shattered—many with a cruel blast. Yet I still love them!

I love the illusion of the set stage in the Theatre, and of the cleverly set scenes and photographic effects that so please my eye at a movie show. I would not have either changed. The illusions of the vast desert fascinate me. I see in my mind's eye a poet busily at work every time I view a mirage in our Western country.

The earliest milk of the mind was in the form of illuions—and how we thrived upon it! How else could the characters in "Gulliver's Travels," "Swiss Family Robinson," Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," "Alice in Wonderland"—and scores of other creations, ever have lived so long and made so many happy?

How endless are the thousands who yearly journey to the quaint and charming little city of St. Augustine, Florida, determined to taste of the spring that Ponce de Leon declared to be The Fountain of Youth? I did myself—but I had no illusion as to its power to restore what youth I might have lost! I did feel better, however, or imagined I did.

On the other hand, nothing can be more tragic than the vanishing of an illusion. Especially when it has for long been lavishly entertained in the heart.

We even create illusions of an intimate character as in synthetic precious stones, and other articles of jewelry. It seems to be our pleasure to bring about things that are not what their ancestors would wish that they might be!

Who would for a moment change the wonder and beauty of an inimitable sunset—so formed and seen by the eye, as to represent to the imagination a veritable celestial city? "Castles in Spain" are still built, as well as being owned, by the most indigent idler, or dreamer. And to a few, at least such an illusion is as a cool draught of wine from the rarest vintage.

Illusions? "Yes, Virginia, there IS a Santa Claus!"

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "An Open Eye and Listening Ear."

CONSTANCY

Old-fashioned flowers, from year to year,
Still young and blithe to us appear.
Nor do we ever wish to flee
From primrose and anemone.

With every spring the daffodils,
Return to grace the fields and hills.
The tulips blossom, row by row,
And men rejoice that it is so.

Though men turn gray and are compelled
To drop the charms which once they held,
Still sweet are songs by cardinals sung
And all the things of earth seem young.

All man-made fashions fade and fail.
Talk becomes tiresome; jests grow stale,
But always lovely to behold
Are rose and phlox and marigold.

United States And Russia In Accord On War Policies

NEW PACT IS SIGNED; ALL OUT EFFORTS

Washington, June 12 (AP) — The United States and Soviet Russia, once poles apart on most questions affecting human welfare, proclaimed themselves close partners today in two momentous undertakings:

1. The urgent task of "creating a second front in Europe in 1942."

2. The enormous task of preparing "to create a better world hereafter."

Disclosure that Russia's Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov had been in Washington and had reached "full understanding" with President Roosevelt and his advisers on the creation of a second front in Europe came simultaneously with a London announcement that England and Russia had signed a 20-year mutual assistance pact.

New Aid Treaty

A few hours later Soviet Ambassador Maxim Litvinoff and Secretary of State Hull signed a mutual aid agreement wiping the dollar sign off United States aid to Russia and pledging both countries to co-operative effort with Britain, China and other like-minded countries "to create a better world hereafter."

Belief was expressed in congressional quarters that the "full understandings" between Molotov and Mr. Roosevelt might result in the eventual opening of Russian air bases to American bombers operating against Japan.

While some legislators said such a future development appeared entirely possible, others voiced the conviction that nothing in the accord would precipitate the Russians into open hostilities with the Japanese while they were so heavily engaged with the Germans.

Would Like Bases

Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) told reporters he hoped that as a result of the help they had been getting and expected to obtain in the future, the Soviets would open bases at Vladivostok for American bombing operations against Japan, adding:

"If the Russians give us the right to use those bases, I feel confident that the United States could bring Japan to her knees in a short time."

But Senator Gillette (D-Iowa), a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, declared it was a matter of prime importance to the Soviets that they not be forced to divert strength to a new eastern front when they needed all they could summon to repulse the Nazi armies in the west.

Battlefield Aid

Few Congress members believed the White House announcement portended any immediate effort by the United Nations to land troops in Europe.

The agreement signed by Litvinoff and Hull was in all essential respects similar to the lend-lease agreements already concluded between the United States and Britain and China. But it went beyond these in emphasizing the importance of assistance contributed on the battlefield as compared with assistance in the form of money, ships, tanks, planes or vital raw materials.

Appended to the document was a note signed by Secretary Hull confirming that the new agreement "replaces and renders inoperative" previous arrangements under which the Soviet government accepted a $1,000,000,000 loan and further additional credits of undisclosed magnitude to be repaid beginning five years after the war.

Martin And Harr File Expenses

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—Primary campaign expense reports disclosed today that the Martin-for-Governor committee spent $15,595 during the successful campaign of Major General Edward Martin, Republican, and that the Harr-for-Governor campaign committee disbursed more than $24,000 in behalf of Luther A. Harr, defeated Democrat.

The Democratic group listed $21,395 receipts, $21,375 expenses and $2,938 unpaid obligations. The Martin-for-Governor finance committee said its expenses balanced receipts. The deadline for filing reports is midnight, Thursday, June 18.

Harr was defeated in a three-way Democratic contest by Auditor General F. Clair Ross.

PASTOR JAILED FOR CONSPIRACY

Philadelphia, June 12 (AP)—The Rev. Kurt E. B. Molzahn, charged with conspiring to furnish military information to Germany and Japan, remained in a cell in Moyamensing prison today, unable immediately to raise $25,000 bail.

The 47-year-old German-born pastor of historic Old Zion's Lutheran church, arrested yesterday, made a formal statement denying guilt and saying he would "follow the command of my Master" to "pray for them that spitefully use you."

"Regardless of what has happened nothing can kill my love for my adopted country and the country of my children," he said.

Meanwhile the Rev. Emil R. W. Schlick, president of the Philadelphia German Lutheran conference, released a statement urging that judgment of the clergyman be withheld "until the facts are known."

Mr. Molzahn was indicted by a federal grand jury in Hartford, Conn. with four others, including Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, former bund leader, specifically, the clergyman was accused of permitting his home to be used as a mailing address by the group.

This year Flag Day, June 14, means more to Americans, for our flag stands for freedom. Now that that freedom is in jeopardy, the day on which we pay tribute to our flag has a deeper meaning. Hitler And Germany!

Hitler carries on relentless fight against Christianity.

(Editor's note: Louis P. Lochner, chief of the former Berlin bureau of the Associated Press and Wide World, points out the nature of Nazi attacks on the church, in this tenth of a series for The Gettysburg Times since his return from internment in Germany.

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER

New York, June 12 (Wide World)—Adolf Hitler is fighting the established Roman Catholic and Lutheran churches just as relentlessly as he ever did, although outwardly there appears to be a truce.

The church leaders of both faiths haven't been fooled.

They know that Alfred Rosenberg, Hitler's "ideological leader," has prepared a secret memorandum, of which a copy is in their possession, in which he demands, in substance, that after the victorious ending of the war nobody who still clings to membership in the Christian churches shall be allowed to hold any government job whatsoever—not even that of messenger or charwoman.

One must always remember, in dealing with the German church situation, that the dyed-in-the-wool Nazi regards the Christian religion as a Jewish product. It is therefore anathema to him.

Attack Continues

That small band of "German Christians" who tried to harmonize Nazism with Christianity by eliminating the Old Testament, the Epistles of St. Paul, the Sermon on the Mount, and who tried to make Jesus out as the foe of Judaism and as an Aryan from Nazareth, now is virtually in the discard, so far as any influence on Nazi thinking and Nazi practice is concerned.

During wartime, the attack on the churches is not open; it is indirect.

The rallies of the Hitler youth organization are arranged for the very hour when Christian believers flock to their churches. The little boy who nevertheless goes to church with his parent is a Pariah, an outcast, a "sissy" to his classmates.

Ousted from Party

If he persists in ignoring the Sunday rallies, he is thrown out of the organization—and as he grows up later this fact is held against him wherever he appears to apply for a job.

A Protestant farmer in the Brandenburg area told me how the local Nazi farmers' leader tried to counteract the churches by summoning the farmers under his jurisdiction to conferences and meetings during church-time on Sunday mornings.

"We all ganged up against him," this farmer assured me, "and so he didn't get away with it. But if there had been any waverers in our midst, the story might have been a different one."

Wherever soldiers so insist, they are assigned an Army chaplain. But unless such a demand comes, or unless the particular general in charge of a division insists upon it, religious services are not held.

No School Instruction

Clergymen are forbidden to visit the sick in state-owned and operated hospitals and institutions.

Important festival days, if they fall within the week, have been called off "because of the war." The faithful fear the Nazis never will permit their reintroduction after the war.

Ministers and priests are forbidden to conduct religious instruction in the schools.

Catholic and Protestant kindergartens, where working mothers could leave their children during the day, now have been eliminated by the Nazis. It's Nazi kindergartens only for everybody.

The religious press virtually has ceased to exist. Religious editors were told there was such a shortage of paper that church papers must cease publication.

Seize Church Property

During the last year the Gestapo has seized an untold number of convents and other institutions belonging to religious orders. The Jesuits, Franciscans and Benedictines suffered especially.

Nuns, priests and lay brothers generally were forced to leave their homes overnight with only a few personal belongings.

The property seized was used iether as SS headquarters, as homes for the mothers of illegitimate children, as office space for Nazi party officials, or for similar purposes.

Now as always in history, however, the "blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church." The arrests of scores of Catholic priests, the dramatic relegation to a concentration camp of Lutheran pastor Martin Niemoeller have not been able to kill off Christianity in Germany. On the contrary, now, during the war, the churches are fuller than ever.

Change War Notice

We had occasion to observe this during out internment at Bad Nauheim. Both the Catholic and the Protestant churches were so near to our habitat, the Grand Hotel Jeschke, that we could see the worshippers come and go. Both churches always were crowded.

In Berlin we had made the same observation: Here, too, there was a marked picking up in church attendance.

And there was another thing we began to notice during our five months internment: Scarcer and scarcer became the death notices which read "Max Schmidt died on the field of honor for his Fuehrer Adolf Hitler and for the fatherland," and more and more frequent became notices like this, "Hans Mueller died for his fatherland in the firm faith in his Lord Jesus Christ."

Determined Christians

The Christians of both faiths are just as determined to save their country from the proposed "national church" of which the Nazis are speaking, as Hitler and his cohorts are set upon wiping out the last vestiges of Christianity.

I recall a talk I had with Hitler almost half a year before he even came into power. It was up in his summer home in Berchtesgaden, in August, 1932.

He expressed the opinion that it takes about one generation until a people is weaned away from its former religious and political faiths. Then, taking up religion specifically, he asserted:

"Every leading religion runs for about two thousand years at the outside; after that it has lost its appeal and something else takes its place."

National Church

At that time I didn't pay much attention to this remark. Hitler in those days was pleading for the support of the churches, and I regarded these words merely as Platonic utterances.

Since then I have come to realize that Hitler must have been referring to his own plans for supplanting Christianity with his own religion of "blood and soil."

This religion, which is evidently to be the kernel of the planned national church, is based on substitution of Nordic racial principles and Nordic philosophy for Christianity. Nordic sagas and fables have been developed into heroic symbols.

It springs from a will to glorify the Germanic race as "divine."

Farmers Can Get Labor By Asking

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—Farmers have only to ask to get sufficient labor to bring in 1942 crops, agriculture officials promised today.

"If farmers will cooperate by reporting their definite needs, we'll be able to supply them, said James E. Walker, chairman of the state war labor board of the U.S. Agriculture department.

Growers needing hands have been asked to report to AAA community committees, county war labor boards or to local U.S. employment offices.

Employment and agricultural officials agreed that Pennsylvania probably would not require mobile farm labor units, which shift locations to meet shortages.

Truman Thompson, assistant farm placement officer for the U.S. employment service, said registration of high school students for farm work was heavy, adding:

"Some of our offices are registering students as young as 14 years of age. However, this is being done as a precautionary measure only. We will not call upon these youths unless our adult labor supply is exhausted."

The U.S. uses about 9,000 tons of cigarette paper a year.

Boy Adventurers Torpedoed Twice

Frank McMillen, 15 (left) of Greenock, Scotland, and Victory Haggith, 17, of Wembley, England, who sought adventure at sea, found it with a vengeance. The Norwegian boat on which they shipped was torpedoed; then a Dutch ship which rescued them suffered a similar fate. In between ships they spent five days in an open lifeboat in the Atlantic. They were landed with other survivors of the Dutch vessel at an east coast port.

Few Changes In War Says James

Grove City, Pa., June 12 (AP)—Except for the magnitude of the present war, "there is really nothing new" in it, Governor Arthur H. James told the graduating class of Grove City college Wednesday.

"The fate of our world has trembled in the balance many a time before, and it may be said also that some of the most glorious chapters in all history opened in scenes of disaster and dismay," said the Governor, who received an honorary degree of doctor of laws.

The war will bring about many changes, but "only the externals of life will be concerned," he said, adding:

"The relationship of man with himself will not change. The old copy book maxims will survive. Honesty will always be the best policy. No legislative enactment or world cataclysm can ever prevent the man who goes a-borrowing from going a-sorrowing."

The military Order of the Purple Heart was founded by Gen. George Washington in 1782.

WARDENS WILL FACE PROBLEMS

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—Pennsylvania's "dusk-to-dawn" practice blackout next week will enable 400,000 citizen defense workers to demonstrate their training in meeting actual air raid emergencis, the state Defense Council says.

Direct hits on bridges, a forced landing of an enemy plane, gas bombs exploding in public places and exploding incendiary bombs are a few of the problems for the defense corps.

These samples will be included in the blackout tests in eastern counties on June 23, central counties on June 24 and western counties on June 25.

"In each case, the air raid warden on duty must report the incident in approved form to the control center so defense corps units can be sent to the scene," said Dr. A. C. Marts, executive director of the state Council of Defense.

Dr. Marts called upon all Pennsylvanians to prepare at least one "blackout" room in their homes so they can carry on necessary home activities.

New York enacted price-fixing laws in 1780.

Here's a sensible way
TO GET OUT OF DEBT

You may wonder how you can get out of debt now, when you haven't been able to before. The answer lies in getting a cash loan from Personal.

With this money you'll be able to pay off your debts at once. Then you repay Personal in monthly amounts you can afford.

This doesn't put you deeper into debt. It simply adjusts to a cash basis the debts you already have.

Personal makes loans on signature, fuurniture, or auto, to men and women, single or married, employed on either a new job or an old one. Sensible monthly payments:

$10.05 a month repays a $100 loan in 12 months. We don't believe that folks should borrow unless a loan is the best solution to their problem. If it is, and you need $10 to $250 or more, come in or phone.

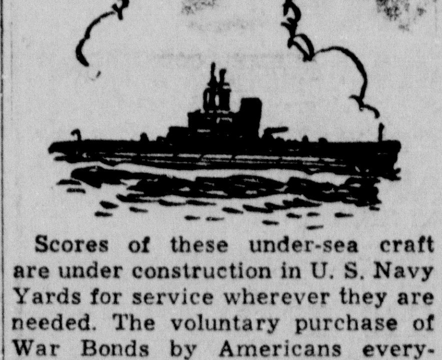
What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The modern Submarine costs approximately $3,000,000. Torpedo warfare on the sea was highly developed in World War I and America has kept apace and is building the most efficient Subs in the world today. The newest submarines displace about 1,500 tons.



Scores of these under-sea craft are under construction in U. S. Navy Yards for service wherever they are needed. The voluntary purchase of War Bonds by Americans everywhere will insure our Navy parity with our enemies, the Japs and the Nazis. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day so we can have the "Subs" we need.

INVASION OF EUROPE SEEN AS BIG MOVE

By DREW MIDDLETON

London, June 12 (AP)—With the United States, Britain and Russia united as never before, Allied hopes of striking a decisive blow in the war this year appeared today to be predicated on a bold invasion of western Europe.

That Allied strategy calls for such a move was clearly indicated by the announcement yesterday that Washington, London and Moscow are agreed on the urgency of opening a second front to crush Adolf Hitler's armies between two forces.

The announcement came amid indications that Hitler was massing his legions for an all-out effort to smash Russia with all possible speed.

Reds Can Take It

Observers believed, however, that Russia's ability to withstand the shock would be strengthened by sure knowledge that powerful help is on the way and that Hitler's operations would be impeded by the necessity of meeting the looming threat in the west.

Already three military factors were reported to have forced the Germans to frenzied efforts to secure western Europe against invasion:

1. Steady reinforcement of American forces in northern Ireland, plus the growing efficiency of the British Army.

2. Arrival of a powerful American battle squadron in British waters to bolster the royal Navy's home fleet.

3. The imminent addition of American bomber squadrons to the RAF, which already is master of the skies over the channel and which has demonstrated its ability to hurl more than 1,000 planes a night against German industrial centers.

Germany Worried

The Germans' worries have been augmented further by British Commando raids which have shown their coastal defenses along the English channel far from invulnerable.

Consequently they have been hastening the construction of new defenses along the shores of the low countries and northern France under the direction of Albert Speer, Nazi minister of economic armaments and munitions.

A network of new railroads is being built in supporting areas, and farmhouses are being transformed into pillboxes as units in a defense system apparently depending more on heavily fortified static positions than on mobile tank columns, most of which have been withdrawn to the Russian front.

IS FINED $500

Philadelphia, June 12 (AP) — A fine of $500 was imposed upon Jacob O. Lentz, 54, former general manager and secretary-treasurer of the Struckler Milling Company, Lebanon, Pa., after he pleaded guilty to a charge of evading the payments of taxes on wheat futures profits. Lentz said he had misunderstood a section of the income tax law. The court suspended a three-months' sentence.

UNFAIR TO LOVE

Chapter 27

About Paul

"What are you thinking about?" Ruby asked.

"About Laura," said Fred. "She's pretty good at scenes herself."

"Are you telling me?" said Ruby. "If you'll forgive my slang."

"If Laura could be in the vicinity of Ye Old Barn Drama House while we're playing 'Goodbye, Honey Chile!' maybe—"

"Fred DeMille, you're up to no good," accused Ruby. She lowered her voice. "You don't happen to know where Laura is now, do you?"

"There are ways of finding out, my dear Watson." Fred chuckled. "How about a stroll among the clover and the corn, before we step into the world of make-believe?"

"I'd love it," said Ruby. She drained her coffee cup.

Presently she and Fred were walking across a field—hand in hand—and humming a funny little song about the silly cat that ate the canary. . . .

Just Tired?

Joe was sitting upon the porch of the Vaughan house with Uncle Frank when Paul Pennell brought his car to a standstill near the front gate.

"There's Kathleen now," Uncle Frank said. He leaned forward. "She looks a bit worried, too. What do you think?"

"Just tired from rehearsing, I imagine," said Joe.

Kathleen told Paul goodbye, waited until he was driving off so that she could wave to him, and then came slowly up the walk.

"Hello, you two!" she said.

"Hello," the men answered in unison.

"You look all in," said Uncle Frank. "Have a strenuous time of it—being an actress?"

"Yes," answered Kathleen. "But I wish you wouldn't take that tone."

"What tone?"

"As if you were sort of—of making fun of me."

"Good lord, Ducky, I never thought of such a thing!"

"And stop calling me Ducky."

"Have you eaten?" Joe wanted to know.

"Yes," said Kathleen. "We had a light meal out at the theatre—after rehearsing."

"Lizzie's keeping some biscuits and coffee hot for you," said Uncle Frank.

"Thanks," said Kathleen. "I could do with some good coffee. The coffee out at the theatre was pretty awful."

She walked on into the house. Uncle Frank looked at Joe.

"Go on in and sit with her, Joe," said he. "I'll go tuck my chickens into bed." He arose and stepped closer to Joe. "Go easy with her, my lad. I can tell she's all keyed up."

"Yes, sir." Joe drew a long breath. "I feel as though I were about to walk on some of those eggs your chickens lay."

"Good luck, son!"

"Thanks, Mr. Frank—I'll need it."

Mr. Frank went down the steps and around the corner of the house. Joe marched into the dining room.

"Mind if I have a cup of coffee with you?" he asked when he saw Kathleen sitting at her usual place.

"Certainly not," replied Kathleen. Then she seemed to slump. "Call Lizzie—she'll bring it."

"I'll go get it myself," said Joe. "No need bothering Lizzie."

When he returned from the kitchen with his cup of coffee, he sat down and gazed at Kathleen.

"For heaven's sake, stop staring at me like that," Kathleen flared. "Do I look like a freak, or something?"

"No," said Joe. "You just look tired, that's all."

"Well, what of it? You've seen people tired before, haven't you?"

Joe shrugged. "Seems to me you're mighty touchy and jumpy. No need taking it out on me—just because you're worried or something."

"Worried! Why should I be worried?"

"You tell me."

"I've been rehearsing for hours and hours," said Kathleen. "And I simply want to sit quietly—and think."

"About your part?"

"Certainly. What else is there I could be thinking about?"

"Paul Pennell—perhaps." Joe leaned forward. There was a tense expression upon his face. "Are you falling in love with him?"

"Stop asking infantile questions!"

"And you stop being evasive," said Joe. He forgot Uncle Frank's advice to go easy with Kathleen. He was upset. He was angry. "After all, if you are falling in love with another man, I have a right to know. I don't want it sprung on me out of the blue."

Kathleen softened. "I reckon you're right, Joe. Forgive me for being so touchy and jumpy, as you put it. I have had a lot on my mind." She gazed across to where a bowl of roses stood upon the sideboard. "You ask if I'm falling in love with Paul. That's hard to answer. I mean, all that he stands for—his theatrical background, his charm and his poise—all appeal to me. We like the same things, dream the same dreams, and—well, I might fall in love with him."

"In other words," said Joe, "all you need is a little push."

"There you go," said Kathleen. "Acting mean."

Joe ignored the accusation. "Is he falling in love with you?"

Blow For Joe

Kathleen looked up. Her gaze was steady as she faced Joe. "Yes, I think he is," she confessed. "You might as well have a direct answer, since you asked a point blank question. He says a lot of things that have double meanings; I mean, he seems to want to declare his love for me, but hesitates."

"Waiting to see whether you ruin his scene or not?"

"That," said Kathleen, "is a downright catty remark."

"Sorry. I sort of feel catty when I discuss Paul Pennell."

Kathleen pushed aside her plate. She rested her elbows upon the table, and looked Joe straight in the eye.

"We might as well have a showdown right here and now, Joe," she said.

"A showdown about what?"

"About us."

"And Paul?"

"Yes—and Paul."

"Okay," agreed Joe. "Only don't let's start throwing things. Too many fragile pieces around."

"This is no time for would-be funny remarks," said Kathleen. "I'm serious, and I want you to be."

"Okay, I'm serious."

Kathleen was thoughtful a moment. "About Paul and me falling in love," she went on presently. "There's no reason why we shouldn't."

"No reason at all," said Joe, "except that you've been loving me years."

"That," said Kathleen, "was just one of those things." She waved Joe to silence. "Paul has talked to me about having his own stock company some day, and about how nice it would be to have a talented wife for his leading lady."

"Meaning you?"

"Keep quiet!" said Kathleen. "And I agree with him. A man and a woman who are interested in the theatre—as Paul and I are—ought to build up a fine life together."

"Yes'm," said Joe. "Go on—tell me all."

"And the more I think about it," continued Kathleen, "the more certain I am that if Paul should ever come to the point of declaring his love, asking me to marry him, I'll give it serious consideration."

"Sighted Sub; Sank Same" Is In Philly

Philadelphia, June 12 (AP) — Philadelphia roared a welcome Thursday to a party of smiling, quiet-mannered men whom two nations have honored as heroes of the second World war.

Officers and enlisted men of the British and American armed forces, they scheduled their visit here in the course of a tour to spur war bond sales.

A parade and a rally of thousands in downtown Reyburn plaza were arranged as the city's welcome.

A visit to the Liberty bell in Independence hall, followed by a luncheon with civic leaders and a war bond meeting were scheduled.

Among the group was laconic, young Ensign Donald F. Mason, naval flier, whose laconic message, "sighted sub; sank same;" delighted the nation in the darker days of the war.

MAN IS CRUSHED

Collegeville, Pa., June 12 (AP)—Irvin Price, 40, Shamokin mine-owner and coal dealer, was instantly killed Wednesday when one of his trucks crashed into another parked coal truck on Ridge Pike, Trappe, Montgomery county.

State police had to use crowbars to release Price's body from the wreckage.

Prison Strikers In Isolation Cells

Pittsburgh, June 12 (AP)—Sixteen prisoners who attempted to organize a second sit-down strike among inmates of the Allegheny County workhouse were confined to isolation cells today on a diet of bread, water and soup.

One hundred inmates in the workhouse rag, broom and chair shops struck June 4, protesting the new state parole law and demanding 10 cents daily pay for "tobacco money," but returned to work the next day under an agreement that the institution's board of managers would consider the pay question at its meeting this week.

The board rejected the pay demand Wednesday night. Superintendent Lawrence Keenan and Board Chairman Leo G. Abernathy informed the prisoners of the board's action yesterday, explaining that the workhouse is a county institution and the prison law gives the board no authority to pay the 10 cents a day given prisoners in state institutions.

Thrift Plan SAYS IT'S A FACT!

If you contemplate buying a diamond, wedding ring, or other jewelry, consider the advantages of paying cash for it. A loan on your car, furniture or salary can cover the cost. And you have up to 12 months to repay under the new Federal Regulations.

Here Is Proof of This Week's Advertisement
A Diamond is not the most valuable precious stone, the Ruby is more valuable than the Diamond.
